ANNUAL OUTING GOES TO OGDEN

AND TOTAL STATE OF THE STATE OF

The annual outing of the United Commercial Travelers of Utah will be held in Ogden in conjunction with the Grand Council convention, which was obtained by the efforts of the boosting delegation which represent ed Ogden at the Helena, Montana, convention several weeks ago.

When the local delegation of traveling salesmen moved on Provo in a special train of nine coaches July 4, it was with the determination to secure the annual outing of the drum-mers of the state for Ogden city. The impression left by the local traveling men was freely commented upon, and played a large part in the effort to hold the 1911 outing here. Booklets and pamphlets, advertising the attractions and advantages of Og den city and Weber county, were distributed by the local boosters.

The local boys made a fine show ing in the parade which marched through the streets of Provo. Senior Councillor J. W. Meyers delivered a real boosting talk to the great crowd assembled around the speakers' stand From the present prospects the con-vention and outing to be held at Ogden next June will be the most suc-cessful gathering of traveling men ever held in Utah.
